

Canadian HR Reporter

9/11/2006

Cream of the HR crop

CCHRA announces the best NPPA and NKE performers

More than 1,650 HR professionals from across Canada wrote one of the Canadian Council of Human Resources Associations' (CCHRA) two national exams in May 2006.

This represents an increase of more than 275 per cent from May 2004 when 430 wrote either the National Knowledge Exam (NKE) or The National Professional Practice Assessment (NPPA).

HR professionals must pass both exams to earn the CHRP designation.

The best performers by province are:

National Knowledge Exam

Alberta	Jennifer L. Munsie
British Columbia	Simon Bachrich
British Columbia	Steven Lee
New Brunswick	Cindy Frizzell
Manitoba	Erin Polcyn
Nova Scotia & Prince Edward Island	Scott R. Boulton
Saskatchewan	Steven Ogram
Newfoundland	H. Maxwell Harvey
Ontario	Raymond Hodgson

National Professional Practice Assessment

Alberta	Steven Assen	Human Resources Advisor	Sherritt International Corporation
	Kelly Ann T. Drabiuk	Human Resources Business Partner	Finning (Canada)
	Douglas Ivey	Superintendent, Human Resources	Grande Cache Coal Corporation

	Dawn R. Quartly	Pension & Benefits Analyst	City of Calgary
	Paul B. Williamson	Human Resources Consultant	Agricultural Financial Services Corporation
British Columbia	Shannon Graham	HR Consultant	Fairhaven Consulting
Manitoba	Kurtis Grenkow	Manager, Human Resources & Organizational Effectiveness	Builders Energy Services Trust
	Roma Thorlakson	Senior Principal	The Harris Consulting Corporation
Ontario	Kate Underhill	Officer, Benefits Policy	Canada Post Corporation
Quebec	Anne Méthot	Consultant
New Brunswick	Jeff McAloon	Regional Sales Manager	PartyLite Gifts Ltd.
	Gary Moore	Director, People Resources	Delta Beausejour
Nova Scotia & PEI	Emily F. Malcolm	HR Manager	WCB of PEI
Saskatchewan	Amy Gamracy	Human Resources Administrator	Morris Industries Ltd

Note: where more than one name appears for a province there was a tie for first place.